GEN. LEE LEAVES CANNON RESIDENCE

He and Family Will Live at 1005 Grove Avenue, Opposite Howitzer Triangle.

General Fitzhugh Lee yesterday feased the residence of Mrs. Henry G. Cannon, No. 1065 Grove Avenue, and will get possession early in March. Messrs. Sutton and Company, it is understood, secured the house for General Lee, but when asked about the report being circulated in the real estate market yesterday afternoon, they were non-communicative. But that this house has been secured is without doubt and General Lee and his family will go to housekeeping in six weeks.

Mrs. Cannon's house is located next to the Groves venue Baptist Church, and just opposite he Howitzer triangle. General Lee is to have a home in the very heart of the best society in Richmond and is to be congratulated in getting such a house and location. For some time he and Mrs. Lee have been boarding with Mrs. Duval, Third and Franklin Streets. But his laasing a house means that he will make the city his home for some time, and will add the presence of his family to the charm of Richmond life.
